

Providing for future church workers

Giving thanks to the Lord

“The harvest is plentiful but the workers are few. Ask the Lord of the harvest, therefore, to send out workers into his harvest field.”
Matt. 9:37

Marge and Ray Wachtmann's vision to provide for more pastors will serve future generations including their own family, pictured here.

To encourage more men to enter the ministry, Ray and Marge Wachtmann created their own endowment fund. It provides income each year for ministerial students from their home church, St. Paul in Napoleon. If there are none for five years, the income is distributed to seminary students in the Ohio District. Since Ray's passing, Marge continues to add to the fund annually so that the "harvest might be increased." For more info about endowments, call Ohio District Gift Planning Services at:

CHRISTIAN GIFT PLANNING

The Training of Future Church Workers

Many Christian stewards are making provisions for ongoing scholarship support of future church workers. These endowments can provide funding in perpetuity and can be established for either immediate or deferred use. The cost for students to attend one of our synodical schools is gradually increasing. Your gift is an investment in the future of our church. Pastors, Christian day school teachers, directors of Christian education, and future missionaries are God's vital instruments in spreading the Gospel of Jesus Christ. If you would like more information about creating a plan for the training of church workers, please call 888-482-8425 or send the coupon below to:
